

Open Forum

Weekend 6, Deliberation Phase

George Thomson
April 28, 2007

Congratulations!

- You have deliberated well
- You have designed and selected your model
- Only one major decision left: approve your final report

Feedback from last weekend

- High ratings for commitment, decision-making and support
- Draft report was well received

Approve meeting notes from Weekend 5

Public Education Campaign

- Government has announced that Elections Ontario will run the pre-referendum public education campaign

This weekend

- Final report
 - Discuss text and design in medium groups and resolve any outstanding issues in plenary
 - Approve report tomorrow, with changes
- Minister's visit
 - Minister will give remarks, followed by recognition ceremony, group photo and lunch

...This weekend

- May 15th and after
 - Waiting to hear what is planned for May 15th transmittal of report to government
 - Time built into this weekend for you to discuss alumni association and future activities
- Communications workshops
 - Chance to talk about frequently asked questions, and to debrief about media experiences

...This weekend

- Dinner with Lieutenant Governor tonight
- Sunday
 - Approve final report
 - Complete last detailed survey
 - Open forum for final observations
 - Assembly lunch (12:30 to 1:30)

Acknowledgments

- Public observers
 - Public observers have been an important part of this process
 - Today our medium groups will not be public as the Assembly will be reviewing its final report and communication messages
- Other acknowledgements

Conclusion

- At the start of deliberation we set out 11 formal decisions. You have made 10 of them.
- You are almost there!